End User Terms and Conditions

1. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Bank shall provide Mobile D to Customer, which allows Customer to make deposits to Customer’s deposit accounts maintained with Bank from Customer’s mobile device by taking photo images of checks on a smart phone camera. The camera will capture an image of the front and back of the check and will read and capture the Magnetic Ink Character Recognition (“MICR”) line of the check. After capture of the image and data, Customer will transmit the images, via the mobile device, to Bank or Bank’s designated processor (“Processor”) and Bank will provisionally credit Customer’s account for the amount of the deposit and enter the images of the checks into the collection process in accordance with the provisions of the Trinity Bank, N.A. Customer Agreement (“Deposit Agreement”) and this Agreement.

In addition, Bank may suspend or terminate the service to you if it believes you are in breach of these End User Terms. Mobile D is also subject to termination in the event your wireless service terminates or lapses.
3. You agree that Bank is entitled to act upon instructions we receive under your user ID, password, or other authentication method that we require and that you are liable for all activities and transactions made or authorized with the use of your authentication credentials.

EXHIBIT
MOBILE REMOTE DEPOSIT

Mobile Deposit Service. The mobile deposit capture service ("Mobile D") allows you to make deposits of the electronic image of a check (as defined by federal law) (each an "Item") to your checking or money market accounts held with us by capturing an electronic image of the Item with the capture device (such as a camera on your mobile device) and submitting images and associated information to us for processing. Your accounts used in connection with Mobile D continue to be governed by the deposit account agreement. In the event that the terms contained in this Exhibit conflict with the terms contained in any of the aforementioned agreements, the terms of this Exhibit shall govern.

Eligible Items. All Items deposited using Mobile D must be endorsed as "For Mobile Deposit Only, Trinity Bank, your account number, and signature " to your account, and any loss Bank incurs from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you will be your responsibility. In addition, you agree that you will not use Mobile D to deposit any of the following Items:

1. Items payable to any person or entity other than you;
2. Items containing a restrictive endorsement;
3. Items that are substitute checks or image replacement documents;
4. Items drawn on a financial institution located outside the United States;
5. Items containing obvious alteration to any of the fields on the front of the Item, or which you know or suspect, or should know or suspect, are fraudulent; or
6. Items prohibited by our current procedures relating to Mobile D or which are otherwise not acceptable under the terms of your checking or money market account.

Image Quality and Duplicate Deposit. The image of an Item transmitted using Mobile D must be legible and clear to us. It must not be altered. It must capture all pertinent information from both sides of the Item. Image quality must comply with industry requirements established and updated by the Federal Reserve Board or any other regulatory agency.

Endorsement. You agree to properly endorse all Items captured and submitted using Mobile D.

Processing Time and Availability of Funds. If we receive the image of an Item for deposit on or before 3:00 p.m. Central Time on a business day, we will consider that day the day of deposit. If we receive the image of an Item for deposit after 3:00 p.m. Central Time or on a weekend or on a non-business day, we will consider the next business day as the day of deposit. Funds deposited using Mobile D, and accepted by us for deposit, will be made available to you in accordance with the agreement governing your deposit account.

Item Review and Rejection. Items we receive may be reviewed for image quality, duplicate presentment, endorsement, and any other factors that may prevent forward collection of the Item. You agree that all deposits received by Bank are subject to verification and final inspection and may be rejected by Bank in its sole discretion, and you shall be liable to Bank for any errors, inaccuracies, breach of warranties and any other loss sustained by, or claim made against Bank relating to such deposits. In all cases, you are responsible for any loss or overdraft plus any applicable fees to your account due to a check being returned. You acknowledge and agree that while Bank normally provides notice of rejected deposits, Bank may reject any Item transmitted through Mobile D in its sole discretion without notice to you, and Bank will not be liable for any such rejection or failure to notify you of such rejection. If Bank rejects an Item for remote deposit, or if Mobile D is otherwise not available due to equipment failure, telecommunications failure or outages, or other system problems that may arise, you must physically deposit the original check at Bank's physical location.

After five (5) business days following the deposit using Mobile D, if you have verified that the funds have been credited to your account, you agree to mark the item as “DEPOSITED” and properly dispose of it to ensure it is not presented for deposit again. After destruction of the original Item, the image will be the sole evidence of the original Item. You agree that you will never re-present the original check. You understand that you are responsible if anyone is asked to make a payment based on an original check that has already been paid.

Interruptions. Mobile D is provided for your convenience and does not replace your monthly account statement, which is the official record of your account. Mobile D may be delayed, interrupted or otherwise negatively impacted by factors relating to your mobile device, your Internet service provider, wireless provider, or other parties, or due to other reasons outside of our control.
